Menachem Kalmenson lives in Otniel. Otniel is a small, religious community near Kiryat Arba.

Otniel is far away from Kibbutz Be'eri. It is 80 kilometers away from Kibbutz Be'eri.

In the early morning hours of October 7th, Menachem went to rescue people. He went to rescue people in Kibbutz Be'eri.

He went with his brother Elchanan and his nephew Itiel. They jumped into his brother's car to drive to Kibbutz Be'eri. They went to rescue people from the terrorists who were in the kibbutz.

The three went door-to-door. In each house there were terrorists. In each house they were fighting with terrorists.

In each house people from the kibbutz were in fear. In each house Menachem, Elchanan, and Itiel rescued the people. In each house they made the people safe.

The three men risked their lives the whole time. Each time they left the kibbutz, they had to think and decide.

Should we return again?
Should we return again and risk our lives?
Should we risk our lives to save people we do not know?

And each time they did.

They would come to a house where a family was hiding. The family was hiding in the safe room.

They were holding the door handle down.

They were hiding in fear of the terrorists.

When they heard Menachem, they thought he was a terrorist.

Menachem had to talk to them. Menachem would say “Shema Yisrael...”

Then the family knew Menachem was not a terrorist. They knew Menachem was a Jew. The family knew they were safe.

The three continued fighting and saving people all day and all night. They continued fighting and saving people until the morning of October 8th.

Menachem, Elchanan and Itiel came into a house to rescue a family.

A terrorist was behind a door. They did not know the terrorist was behind the door. The terrorist was waiting for them.

Then something very sad happened.

Sadly, Elchanan was killed and Menachem was injured.
